The Story of the Most Unique Court in the World

IN no other city of the world will be found a court of justice quite equal to the International Mixed Court of Shanghai—in the especial reasons for its establishment, in the rules under which it functions and in the opposition which its very existence engenders.

SHANGHAI:

Its Mixed Court and Council

By A. M. KOTENEY

624 pp., 8vo., full cloth binding Mex. $20.00

MEMBERS of the Bar gave recognition to the need of such a work by their immediate purchases upon its publication. But it is not essentially a book for the law library; it rather should find a place on the book-shelf of every business executive whose interests in any way touch those coming under the jurisdiction of the Mixed Court.

CHINESE CURRENCY AND BANKING

By S. R. WAGEL

"The Times" says that Mr. Wagel's book "presents a very full and careful survey of the whole field of trade and economics in China." The subject is an abstruse one, but is dealt with in a readable and expert manner.

A NECKLACE OF PEACH-STONES

A Chinese Miscellany

By W. ARTHUR CORNABY

A NARRATIVE of village life in China with many sidelights on the customs, superstitions and folklore of the people, characterized by a sympathetic insight and understanding. Numerous illustrations by the author, done after the manner of the Chinese, add to the interest and attractiveness of the book.

THE

North-China Daily News

ESTABLISHED IN 1864

To the Reader

The "North-China Daily News" writes the history of China. It records the pulse of its politics; it reports the conditions of its finance and its markets; and it chronicles the daily doings of its people.

To the Advertiser

The greatest purchasing power in China is that possessed by readers of the conth-China Daily News." It is the newspaper which is found in every office, consular or commercial; it is most frequently quoted both by the foreign and vernacular press; and it is the one newspaper which combines a quality with a quantity circulation—being the largest both in size and circulation in China. It is the only newspaper publishing periodical audited circulation statements.

Subscription: Mex. $24 per annum.

OLD TARTAR TRAILS

By A. S. KENT

Central Asia has always been a forbidden land, except to the few who have had courage to face her thousand-mile-long trails, her mountain passes, and the nomads who range hither and thither across her bleak plateaus in search of game or grass. Mr. Kent has visited her ancient cities and lamaseries, now inaccessible, and tells of his experiences and difficulties. Many photographs bring us nearer to this strange people.

OLD TARTAR TRAILS

By A. S. KENT

Central Asia has always been a forbidden land, except to the few who have had courage to face her thousand-mile-long trails, her mountain passes, and the nomads who range hither and thither across her bleak plateaus in search of game or grass. Mr Kent has visited her ancient cities and lamaseries, now inaccessible, and tells of his experiences and difficulties. Many photographs bring us nearer to this strange people.

CHINESE CURRENCY AND BANKING

By S. R. WAGEL

"The Times" says that Mr. Wagel's book "presents a very full and careful survey of the whole field of trade and economics in China." The subject is an abstruse one, but is dealt with in a readable and expert manner.

The Story of the Most Unique Court in the World

IN no other city of the world will be found a court of justice quite equal to the International Mixed Court of Shanghai—in the especial reasons for its establishment, in the rules under which it functions and in opposition which its very existence engenders.

SHANGHAI:

Its Mixed Court and Council

By A. M. KOTENEV

624 pp., 8vo., full cloth binding Mex. $20.00

MEMBERS of the Bar gave recognition to the need of such a work by their immediate purchases upon its publication. But it is not essentially a book for the law library; it rather should find a place on the book-shelf of every business executive whose interests in any way touch those coming under the jurisdiction of the Mixed Court.

OLD TARTAR TRAILS

By A. S. KENT

Central Asia has always been a forbidden land, except to the few who have had courage to face her thousand-mile-long trails, her mountain passes, and the nomads who range hither and thither across her bleak plateaus in search of game or grass. Mr. Kent has visited her ancient cities and lamaseries, now inaccessible, and tells of his experiences and difficulties. Many photographs bring us nearer to this strange people.

NORTH-CHINA DAILY NEWS OFFICE, SHANGHAI

THE

North-China Daily News

ESTABLISHED IN 1864

To the Reader

The "North-China Daily News" writes the history of China. It records the pulse of its politics; it reports the conditions of its finance and markets; and it chronicles the daily doings of its people.

To the Advertiser

The greatest purchasing power in China is that possessed by readers of the "North-China Daily News." It is the newspaper which is found in every office, consular or commercial; it is most frequently quoted both by the foreign and vernacular press; and it is the one newspaper which combines a quality with a quantity circulation—being the largest both in size and circulation in China. It is the only newspaper publishing periodical audited circulation statements.

Subscription: Mex. $24 per annum.

THE

North-China Daily News

ESTABLISHED IN 1864

To the Reader

The "North-China Daily News" writes the history of China. It records the pulse of its politics; it reports the conditions of its finance and its markets; and it chronicles the daily doings of its people.

To the Advertiser

The greatest purchasing power in China is that possessed by readers of the "North-China Daily News." It is the newspaper which is found in every office, consular or commercial; it is most frequently quoted both by the foreign and vernacular press; and it is the one newspaper which combines a quality with a quantity circulation—being the largest both in size and circulation in China. It is the only newspaper publishing periodical audited circulation statements.

Subscription: Mex. $24 per annum.

OLD TARTAR TRAILS

By A. S. KENT

Central Asia has always been a forbidden land, except to the few who have had courage to face her thousand-mile-long trails, her mountain passes, and the nomads who range hither and thither across her bleak plateaus in search of game or grass. Mr Kent has visited her ancient cities and lamaseries, now inaccessible, and tells of his experiences and difficulties. Many photographs bring us nearer to this strange people.

The Story of the Most

Unique Court in the World

IN no other city of the world will be found a court of justice quite equal to the International Mixed Court of Shanghai-in the especial reasons for its establishment, in the rules under which it functions and in the opposition which its very existence engenders.

SHANGHAI:

Its Mixed Court and Council

By A. M. KOTENEV

624 pp., 8vo., full cloth binding Mex. $20.00

MEMBERS of the Bar gave recognition to the need of such a work by their immediate purchases upon its publication. But it is not essentially a book for the law library; it rather should find a place on the book-shelf of every business executive whose interests in any way touch those coming under the jurisdiction of the Mixed Court.

A NECKLACE OF PEACH-STONES

A Chinese Miscellany

By W. ARTHUR CORNABY

A NARRATIVE of village life in China with many sidelights on the customs, superstitions and folklore of the people, characterized by a sympathetic insight and understanding. Numerous illustrations by the author, done after the manner of the Chinese, add to the interest and attractiveness of the book.

412 pp., 8vo., art canvas binding, $8.00

THE

North-China Daily News

ESTABLISHED IN 1864

To the Reader

The "North-China Daily News" writes the history of China. It records the pulse of its politics; it reports the conditions of its finance and its markets; and it chronicles the daily doings of its people.

To the Advertiser

The greatest purchasing power in China is that possessed by readers of the "North-China Daily News." It is the newspaper which is found in every office, consular or commercial; it is most frequently quoted both by the foreign and vernacular press; and it is the one newspaper which combines a quality with a quantity circulation—being the largest both in size and circulation in China. It is the only newspaper publishing periodical audited circulation statements.

Subscription: Mex. $24 per annum.

(Postage Extra).

Measures of capacity vary so much, according to the substance measured, and are so rarely used, that they are omitted.

LAND MEASURE.

Mow.—The following notification published in 1861 by H. B. M. Consul defines the area of a Shanghai mow:—

Each mow is 240 poo long by 1 poo broad, and contains, therefore, 240 square poo.

The poo measures 5 feet Chinese Government Rule, equal to 66 inches, English. A square poo, therefore, contains 3,025 square feet, English, and a square mow 7,260 square feet, English; so that a square piece of ground measuring 85,20569 feet, or 85‡ feet every way, contains exactly one Shanghai mow. The Paoshan or Woosung mow contains only 6,600 square feet.

Shanghai mow = 1.1 Paoshan mow. Paoshan mow = .909 Shanghai mow.

MONEY.

Weights and measures in China vary in every province and on different kinds of goods. The words picul, catty, tael, mace, and candareen are not Chinese.

THE SHANGHAI TAEL is the medium for banking and wholesale transactions, but does not exist as a coin. Exchange values are as follows:—

Shanghai taels =about \begin{cases} 89.77 \text{ Halkuan taels} \\ 94.34 \text{ Tientsin taels} \\ 92.85 \text{ Kuping taels} \end{cases}

THE MEXICAN DOLLAR is the medium for most retail transactions :-

1.00 = about Tis. 0.73 1.10 in subsidiary silver coinage1.30 in subsidiary copper coinage
